12. Submission Text: I support the proposal to allow for gluten free claims on beer. Without this labeling it would be very difficult for a coeliac to identify suitable beers. Its not a matter of choosing the "healthier" beer (as it could be perceived), more in keeping those with the disease healthy - as you know people with this disease need to adhere to a strictly GF diet - its not a choice for them - and been able to identify products (alcohol or not) that are suitable is critical. I fully support the use of GF labeling on beer. For coeliacs this labeling is critical.
